Going, Going Gone: Digital Sublimation is out of shares of stock;
Application Testing Began; Recruiting ActionScript 2.0 programmers

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Digital Sublimation's stock has maxed out the initial offering of 6000 shares. We are also pleased to announce testing round 1 of 2 began today and will continue on March 24. Professor Burton has graciously offered to match our initial COGENT compensation rates for CGT 411 testing participants.

Digital Sublimation is now recruiting students experienced with ActionScript 2.0 programming to assist on our secondary project of finalizing production of four interactive multimedia games. This opportunity is open to all CGT students and will be compensated with COGENT. Contact Alex Porter, AIR Development Manager at avporter@purdue.edu for more details.

Digital Sublimation is an interactive multimedia company based in West Lafayette, Indiana and is focused on providing quality solutions to our customers through the advances of technology. Founded in 2008, the services Digital Sublimation offers are geared to assist companies to create new mediums of communication through interactive applications.
